Welcome to the 75th Garden Society Show

We hope to see lots of entries for this year's show! Some classes, which attracted few entries, have been discontinued, including the Novice Section. Newcomers' entries are usually equally as good as others and the Horticultural Section is open to everyone—if in doubt, have a go!

Copies of this Schedule, entry forms and the colouring sheets for downloading and printing at home can be found on the Garden Show page of the Llangynidr Agricultural Show website www.llangynidrshow.org.

The newly constituted Garden Show Committee wishes to thank all those who give so much time to planning and running the Show—as well as everyone who enters—the more entries there are, the better the Show!

We are particularly indebted to Val Coupland, who has organised the Show so efficiently and to such a high standard for many years, but who is unable to continue due to other commitments.

The Show is costly to run and to have any chance of breaking even, we depend on sponsors and advertisers, to whom we are very grateful. If you would like to contribute, the entry forms give you the opportunity to sponsor prizes at £5 per class and this can be added to your entry fee. Sponsors will be listed in the hall, but please indicate if you don't wish to be named (the amount of the donation will not be included).

Cup winners will be listed instead of a formal presentation and raffle prize winners will be announced at the close of the show at 4.15pm.

Llangynidr Garden Society : Data Privacy Policy – Annual Show 2018

When you enter a class in the Llangynidr Garden Society Annual Show (the “LGS Show”) you give us some personal information. This usually includes your name and address, phone and email contact details. It might also include information about your children. Any cheque you give us includes your bank details, although we do not record that information but pay the cheque straight into the Society’s bank account. You may also give us this information in other circumstances, such as when you attend any other event organised by Llangynidr Garden Society or ask to receive information about our activities.

The Garden Society must keep all such information safe and secure and may use it only for the legitimate interests and activities of the Society.

Those interests and activities include but are not limited to: the organisation and operation of the LGS Show and communications about it; the establishment and maintenance of appropriate records, including as to entries and payments received and cups and other prizes won; promotional activities including the publication of the names and home locations (town or village but not detailed addresses or other contact details) of cup and prize winners on the LGS Show website (associated with the Llangynidr Agricultural Show website); the taking of photographs of people (including children) and exhibits both general and specific and use of such photographs (which may be edited or altered) in promotional activities about the LGS Show including on its website.

Many photographs will be of groups of people without any caption or other means of identifying individuals. While we do not need to ask you to complete a general data privacy consent form, we nonetheless recognise that some people may be unwilling to appear, or have their children appear, in photographs on a website or other publicity in which individuals can be identified. Therefore entry forms will now include a box for you to confirm for yourself and/or your children whether you are content to have such photographs included in any published material.

Your information is maintained and used only by Garden Society Committee Members and others assisting in the organisation and running of the LGS Show. The information is actively maintained as long as the Garden Society needs it to enable the efficient organisation of the LGS Show including for the collection of cups and prizes at the end of the relevant year, and for other relevant activities of the Society. Names of winners remain on the LGS Show website for several years. Information provided on entry forms is not automatically deleted and may be used to verify whether, for example, a person had entered a particular class in a previous year (where this might be relevant to classes which that person may enter this year). Information may therefore remain in the Garden Society’s control until the Society ceases to exist or until you ask for any information about you or your family to be deleted. We do not share your information with any other organisation.

You may ask to see what information we hold about you or your children, to amend the information or to have it deleted. You can talk to any member of the Garden Show Committee about this. For the 2018 LGS Show the Committee members’ contact details are at the front of the LGS Show programme.

If you are unhappy about the way we store or use your personal data and you cannot resolve the issue with the Garden Society, you can apply for help to the office of the Information Commissioner (ico.org.uk).

Field Day Flowers was born out of an intense desire to create floral designs with heart and personality. Our floral style exudes an elegant wildness that gives our arrangements character and charm.

The newly established shop in Abergavenny creates a base for us to work from, a showroom if you like, where we can demonstrate our style and enthusiasm for beautiful blooms. Of course it also gives us a place to meet and chat with customers, something we like to do almost as much as arranging flowers!

GEORGE'S MARVELLOUS MEDICINE

So, give me a bug and a jumping flea,
Give me two snails and lizards three,
And a slimy squiggler from the sea,
And the poisonous sting of a bumble bee,
And the juice from the fruit of the ju-jube tree,
And the powdered bone of a wombat's knee,
And one hundred other things as well,
Each with a rather nasty smell.
I'll stir them up, I'll boil them long,
A mixture tough, a mixture strong.

Classes 129 & 130

LITTLE GINGER CAT

Little ginger cat,
Sitting in the sun,
Watching all the birds,
Playing just for fun.
Hear them chirp and tweet,
As they fly so free,
Just as if to say,
“You cannot catch me!”

Classes 131 & 132

TWO LITTLE DICKY BIRDS

Two little dicky birds sitting on a wall,
One named Peter, one named Paul.
Fly away Peter, fly away Paul,
Come back Peter, come back Paul.
